

TAYLOR FAMILY VINEYARDS 2004 CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Our Roots

We're not like most Napa Valley wineries. We're not concerned with being flashy and slick. We focus on two all-important basics: family and quality.

We like to make our wines like we live our lives – in balance. Our number one priority is family. Together as a family, we planted our 9-acre vineyard in the Stags Leap District's characteristic volcanic soil on our hands and knees in 1980. Our family's consistent hard work since then has yielded some pretty amazing fruit, which we work to make sure shines through in our wines.

After years of selling our grapes, in 2002 we decided to keep the fruits of our family's labor and craft them into wines that would proudly bear our family name. We're glad we did. We burst with pride whenever we see friends and their families enjoying Taylor Family Vineyards wines.

Our Wine

The 2004 Cabernet Sauvignon opens up with dark cherry, tobacco, cassis, blackberry and a hint of violet. The soft, mouth-filling tannins fill the palate and finish long after the wine is a sweet memory. Enjoy this classic Stags Leap District wine
